CONN BROTHERS

The Ladies Aid Society, will meet Saturday with Mrs. J. J. Walker, on Lexington street.

T. J. Robinson, of Huktonville, qualified as executor of J. C. Robinson's estate, as provided in the will.

Florence, Hughes and McCarty, will have a big sale of lots at Stanford Saturday, May 22nd. A lot will be given away and bargains will be offered.

Will Probated

The will of J. C. Robinson was probated in Judge Ford's court Monday. He gives his entire estate to his wife for life, at her death to be divided between his daughter, Mrs. Bettie Henry and his grand-daughter, Helen. If either dies without issue that part goes to the survivor.

Water in Abundance

Superintendent, L. E. Herron has stopped the leak at the water plant, the lake is full of water, and the supply can never be exhausted, in one season, even if a drought like last year should return. Those contemplating putting water in their premises can safely do so now. We move a vote of thanks to Mr. Herron.

The Triangle

"The Triangle" given at the Court house Friday night, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church, was a success in every particular. The play was well staged and each one played his part well. The house was full and the gross receipts were very pleasing to the ladies, who worked so hard to make it a success.

Denny

Since the death of Mrs. James N. Denny was reported at press hour last issue, and the date and place of funeral only could be given, we desire to make a further statement in reference to this excellent lady.

She was formerly Miss Mary Beatie, of Missouri, and was a descendant of worthy and prominent ancestors. She was in her fifty-sixth year, a devoted member of the Presbyterian church, a faithful wife, a devoted mother, and a true woman in every walk of life. Those who survive her are her husband, who has held many important places of public trust and has the confidence of his fellow citizens, one daughter, Miss Katie Lee, four sons, Alexander, William, Samuel and Marshall, upon whom her beautiful traits of character are reflected. Such a death proves not only a heavy loss to them, but to the entire community in which she lived. We, with the many friends of the family express our heartfelt condolence.

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY

Replies to Hon. John Sam Owsley.

Lancaster, Ky., April 29, 1909.

In a card published by Judge Owsley in the Advocate of April 28th, he refers to the position I took, in our joint discussion at Lancaster, on the subject of an amendment to the Local Option law, by which, if enacted, the purchaser of spirituous liquors in those districts where the sale of it is forbidden by law would be subjected to a penalty equal to that imposed upon the seller.

It is true that during that discussion I then expressed, and do now express, my belief that such amendment would be more effective in the destruction of the "Blind Tiger" traffic than the existing law which limits the penalty to the seller. Judge Owsley commits himself to the role of a prophet rather than a jurist, and with unclouded vision foresees that this amendment would "multiply beyond measure the number of blind tigers and increase by a thousand fold the whiskey traffic in the district." Bold words these; but if they be the offspring of inspiration rather than the exuberance of stimulated imagination, they must be accepted as truth. It will, however, strike the public as an unusual dispensation of providence that such gift of clairvoyance has been conferred on Judge Owsley when it has been mysteriously withheld from the membership of many legislative assemblies of Kentucky in the enactment of laws upon kindred subjects.

Has it multiplied the number of duels and voluntary fights in Kentucky because all parties participating in such encounters are made, under the law, equally guilty? Has it increased gambling for money or property because all the parties to the game are subject to equal punishment? Has it increased the indefensible practice of buying and selling votes at popular elections because the seller and the buyer are equally penalized? Has it increased the despicable practice which once prevailed of selling and buying rewards and profits of a public office because of the law which imposes a like penalty on both buyer and seller? Has the betting of money or property upon the result of popular elections been increased because the legislature enacted that both parties to the bet shall pay a fine? Has the betting on games played on licensed billiard or pool tables been increased because the law imposes a penalty both on the owner of the table and the persons who make the bet? Has the violation of the 7th commandment been increased because both parties to the forbidden act are punishable at law?

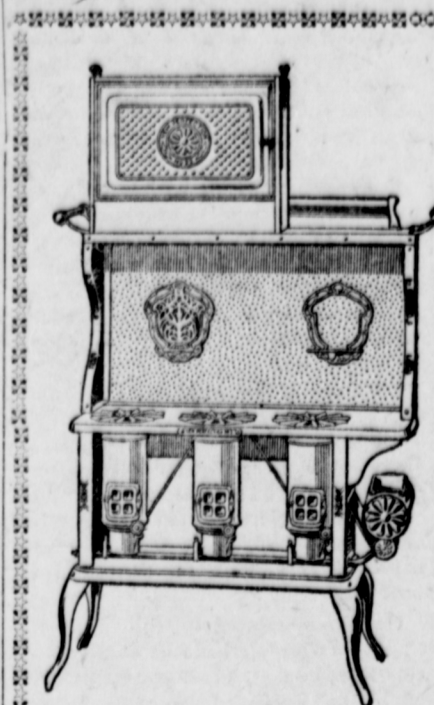

When these and many other questions of like import can be truthfully and affirmatively answered, then the public may be forced to admit that the former legislatures of Kentucky have groped in uninspired darkness, and that a new prophet has arisen in Israel.

II.

Descending from the exalted plane of prophecy, Judge Owsley is pleased to assume the role of jurist, and to adjudge that "by putting a penalty on the buyer as well as the seller of liquor, it makes each of them incompetent to testify against the other, because neither the seller nor the buyer can be made before the court to give any information..." which would incriminate himself." Before considering the legal phase of this point, it will be not amiss to note the logical result to which it tends. The argument is that the buyer of liquor illegally sold should not be punished by law because the seller could not be required to testify against him. Would Judge Owsley or the public have the legislature to repeal the existing laws on the subject of duelling, mutual combats, gaming, betting and all other crimes and misdemeanors which cannot be committed except by the concurrent acts of not fewer than two parties? And yet the identical principle he invokes applies to all these cases. There cannot be an illegal sale of liquors unless there be a purchaser. It is the act of the buyer which makes the business profitable. If a restraint be thrown on the buyer, it necessarily affects the business of the seller.

III.

While it is fundamental law that no one can be required to testify against himself, it is not the law that he may not be forced to testify against another, though his testimony may tend to incriminate himself, if the legislature should provide that his own testimony against another shall not be used against himself. In the chapter of the Kentucky Statutes against gaming, it is expressly provided that "in any prosecution for a penalty against gaming, it shall be no exemption for a witness that his testimony may incriminate himself; but no such testimony shall be used against him in any prosecution except for false swearing or perjury." So, therefore, if the Local Option law should be so amended as to penalize the buyer as well as the seller, with the addition to it, applicable to gaming, the buyer could, in a prosecution against the seller, be introduced as a witness; and then in turn, in a prosecution against the buyer, er, the seller could be introduced against the buyer. This would be an easy task for the legislature, and by the enactment of such law the guilt of both parties to an illegal transaction could be legally shown.

Haselden Bros.

IV.

If I may be allowed to indulge a reasonable conjecture, based on certain trials which have recently taken place in police court of Stanford, and also on the common observation of many people in the community, I would surmise that Judge Owsley may have some interest other than a patriotic consideration of the public welfare, which constrains his opposition to a penalty against the purchaser of blind tiger whiskey. A pointed reference to this interest was made by me in his presence at our joint discussion, and will be adverted to more specifically in the speeches I propose to deliver in Boyle and other counties.

Questions of legislative policy are not fit subjects for consideration in a contest for a judicial office; but inasmuch as they have been injected by Judge Owsley into this canvass, more particularly in his oft-repeated private talks, I resolved to declare my own views publicly.

Referring to his boastful declaration that he has voted for local option in Lincoln county, I will not deny it, for I do not know. But I have equally good authority for saying that when he did so, it was with an abject apology and explanation to a saloon keeper who held, and yet holds, his personal obligation for about $200.00 for whiskey which Judge Owsley had purchased from him by the drink. It is no uncommon thing for people, not over astute, who are seeking some personal preferment from the public, to become sudden advocates of an attractive moral sentiment. There is, nevertheless, a distrust of the sincerity of one who preaches morality and practices immorality; of the sincerity of the rampant temperance man who votes dry at the polls and retires to his office and votes wet out of his bottle. There is also a distrust of one whose reformation, if it has at all occurred, is coincident with his candidacy for office. It may be that one may jump immediately from the swine trough to a feast of the fatted calf; but when it comes to the point of seeking credentials for apostleship I take it that the people would prefer that he should "tarry a while at Jerusalem to wait for power from on high."

V.

Judge Owsley but recently accepted my invitation to a series of joint discussions in Garrard county, but after one meeting, for some reason unknown to me, he abandoned them and made conflicting appointments for himself in Mercer county, to which I am not invited, and beside published his screed in the Advocate, to which this is but a partial response. I propose to give to anyone who may feel sufficiently interested, an opportunity to hear my views in a series of public speeches to be yet delivered, and I again respectfully invite Judge Owsley to be present, assuring him I will grant an equal division of time.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

To the Democratic party of the 13th Judicial District: I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge of this district. I prefer a primary election.

M. C. SAUFLEY.

We are authorized to announce Hon. Chas. A. Hardin, of Harrodsburg, as a candidate for re-nomination for the office of Commonwealth Attorney for the 13th Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Hon. John Sam Owsley Jr. as a candidate for the nomination for circuit judge of this 13th district, subject to the action of the Democratic Party.

Hon. Harvey Helm delivered one of the strongest speeches, made in Congress against the Payne Tariff bill. He did not favor a single feature of the bill, and in this, as in everything else, proved himself to be in favor of the best interests of the people, and, as ever, in line with true democratic principles. We quote the following from his speech, and only regret that we can not use it all: "The right to tax is the right to destroy, and by taxation you have exercised well-nigh to the limit this right to destroy the property of the people. All efforts on this side to check or curb the placing of this intolerable burden upon the people is met with derision and sneers. The businesslike procedure under such circumstances would be to reduce expenditures to at least meet existing revenue, not to increase taxation for more lavish expenditures."

When Hon. Chas. A. Hardin, Commonwealth Attorney, announced his candidacy for the nomination again, we mentioned his superior qualifications, his honor and integrity, and we would have pledged this paper to support him then, had it not been for the rule, in journalism or newspaper ethics, which forbids an expression indicating any candidate before the nomination. We will adhere strictly to this rule, though personally we were always for Chas. A. Hardin, and since he is now the nominee, we place him at top of the list of nominees, and pledge the earnest and hearty support of the Record to him, as well as to each nominee of our splendid county ticket.

Communications have been published in reference to the race for Judge, but no new matter will be published in the issue next preceding the primary, as it could not be answered by the other candidate. It is the duty of every democrat to go to the polls on the 15, and vote for his choice for Judge, and then, if his man is not nominated, support the winner and the entire ticket, presenting a solid and invincible column, which will scatter terror and dismay in the camp of the enemy. The free and unlimited use of the pardoning power, by a partisan Governor, and the oppressive tariff bill, advocated by a Republican congress, should encourage Democrats, and prove the expression—Truth crushed to earth will rise again.

Col. W. P. Walton, one of the best editors in the State, for many years, able and fearless, always on the side of right and justice, advocating the general welfare, and, above all, a strong champion of Democratic principles, has sold the Kentucky State Journal to James L. Newman, a well known newspaper man. The editorial department of the paper will be conducted by Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, who is altogether able to edit any paper, and who will dish out hot Democratic doctrine; yet the fraternity regrets to give up an old tried horse, who has given such long and valuable service. We hope, however, that he will graze awhile and get back in the harness.

To the many guesses, speculations, opinions, surmises and prognostications, as to what will be the policy of the Journal under its new management, we have for the present this definite and specific answer to make: It will be a Democratic newspaper, fighting the battles of that party the best it can, not for the sake of putting in office one set of men over another set of men, nor for the sake of "evening up" some old scores, but because it believes that the triumph and ascendancy of Democratic principles means the greatest amount of good to the greatest number.—Kentucky State Journal.

The reckless murder of Armenians and Missionaries in Turkey should be stopped, if all the nations are required to combine against it. The English Consul very appropriately forced a temporary cessation of hostilities.

The Tariff revision is up and not down, and the protected interests are favored over the consumer. An income or direct tax for revenue is the only relief for the people.

Again we announce that no contribution will be published, without a real signature, unless a responsible person vouches for the authenticity of the article. We will not violate this old rule.

To Increase Avoidupols.
Among many peoples fat is considered a sign of beauty and should this not come naturally artificial means are resorted to. In Egypt the women burn and grind up black beetles and mix them with beef fat, sesame oil and muffs. This mixture is boiled together and a cupful of the liquor taken daily by women desirous of getting fat. In England in the middle ages the ladies used the fat of the lizard when desirous of becoming stout.

Every one who tries it feels just that way. Relief is felt at once and its quick cure surprises you. COMMUNICATION.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

As there are so many false reports circulated about Judge J. S. Owsley, Jr., we temperance Democrats, independent of the "Anti-Saloon League," send out this circular letter to correct them, and give facts. We copy from the "Danville Advocate":

Brief sketch of Hon John Sam Owsley, of Lincoln County, who is making remarkable strides in his race for the Circuit Judgeship in this, the Thirteenth Judicial District.

He will make a close canvass of Boyle County this week, where he has many strong backers.

The race for the nomination for Circuit Judge is now on and much interest is being developed. The friends of Judge Owsley are actively engaged, and seem confident he will be the choice of a majority of the Democrats of Boyle County. Judge Owsley comes to Boyle this week to canvass the county.

He was appointed to the office of County Judge of Lincoln County by Gov. Beckham, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Judge Richard Warren. He so acceptably discharged the duties of that office that the Democracy of Lincoln County gave him the nomination for County Judge without opposition, and after a vigorous canvass he defeated his Republican opponent, by a good majority.

He held the office of Commonwealth's Attorney of this District for two terms, and performed his duties faithfully and with exceptional ability. He is now County Judge of Lincoln and aspires to the Circuit Judgeship, for which he is well and admirably qualified.

The friends of Clark Harberson are much gratified to learn that Judge Owsley will make him Master Commissioner if elected to the Judgeship. Judge Owsley is known to have always voted for local option, and it is claimed the temperance Democrats will stand solidly behind him in his fight for the nomination. This question has become the supreme and absorbing issue in this and other districts of the State, and the people want to be advised as to the views of all candidates who offer for office. They want to know whether they are placing the machinery of our government in the hands of those who favor or in the hands of those who approve their views on this subject. It might be well to state that at least two of the counties of this District will soon vote again on local option.

The people of Boyle County have for years had local option and Judge Owsley's position on this question makes him an exceedingly acceptable and formidable candidate.

We copy a letter from the Pastor of the Presbyterian Church: Stanford, Ky., April 27, 1909. Rev. T. W. Barker, Stanford, Ky. Dear Brother Barker.—In answer to your enquiry in regard to Judge Sam Owsley, I am glad to state that he is united with my church the first of last January, and has since that time lived a consistent Christian life.

Fraternally Yours,
J. L. Vandell,
Pastor of Presbyterian Church.

We also copy Judge J. S. Owsley's letter to the Anti-Saloon League: Stanford, Ky., April 3, 1909. To the Members of The Anti-Saloon League, of Lincoln County: Dear Sirs: your letter of April 2, 1909, enclosing copies of the proposed "County Unit Bill" and "Anti-Blind Tiger Bill," requesting me to answer you as soon as possible, stating whether or not I am in favor of these bills becoming laws, has just been received.

In reply will state I am in favor of both bills becoming laws, and in favor of all other legislation necessary to enforce local option. I have never failed to vote for local option whenever that question has been submitted to a vote of the people.

Yours very truly,
J. S. Owsley, Jr.
You see Mr. Owsley takes a positive stand on the right side. He has always been in favor of Local Option.

All that has been said about him being drunk since he joined the church is false. We have investigated every charge we have heard of, and find them all false. It is not a question of what Mr. Owsley has been, what is he now? We are standing by him because we have faith in him, and believe that he is sincere. We appeal to all Temperance Democrats. Be careful, do not make a mistake. If Mr. Owsley is nominated in means a victory for Temperance Democrats. If he defeated it means a victory for the liquor party.

OFFICIAL CALL.

The Democratic Committee in and for the Thirteenth Judicial District of Kentucky met pursuant to the call of Chairman G. L. Penny, at the office of Chas. A. Hardin, in Danville, Boyle County, Kentucky, on Tuesday, March 23, 1909, at 2 p. m. and all members were present. Said meeting was called to order by Chairman Penny. Chairman announced that the election of a Secretary of said Committee was in order, and Chas. A. Hardin was duly nominated and elected Secretary of said Committee. Mr. Hugueley then introduced the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

1.—A primary election is hereby called, to be held in the several voting precincts of Lincoln, Boyle, Garrard and Mercer Counties, between 8 a. m. and 4 p. m., on Saturday, May 15, 1909, for the purpose of nominating Democratic candidates for the offices of Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney in and for the Thirteenth Judicial District of Kentucky, to be voted for at the regular November election, 1909.

2.—All Democrats who are legal voters shall be entitled to vote in said primary election, and are requested to do so.

3.—Any person who desires to be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge or Commonwealth's Attorney shall, not later than April 30, 1909, give notice of such intention, in writing to G. L. Penny, Chairman of the District Committee of the Thirteenth Judicial District, and, in addition, candidates for the nomination for Circuit Judge shall, at the time of giving said notice, deposit with the aforesaid chairman the sum of $500, and candidates for the nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney shall, at the time of giving said notice, deposit with the chairman $250.

4.—Said District Committee shall meet at the office of the secretary in Danville, Kentucky, on Wednesday, May 5, 1909, at 2 p. m., and if, at the expiration of the time fixed by section 3 hereof, there be not more than one candidate for Circuit Judge or Commonwealth's Attorney, who has complied with the conditions of Section 3, then the Committee will declare to be the nominee for the office sought that person who is the only candidate, and shall refund to such candidate the entrance fee paid by him, less his proportion of the costs already accrued from advertising and preparing for the election.

5.—The polls shall be opened in each and every precinct of all the counties in the district aforesaid, in the usual and regular voting places, and

6.—Upon the closing of the polls, the officers shall proceed to count the ballots and to make returns, and in so doing shall be governed by the provisions of the general election laws, and the returns shall be made to the chairman of the respective counties in the district, who will deliver the stub-books, the certificates, and any questioned ballots to this Committee.

7.—The officers of election shall be selected from lists to be offered by the candidates, in accordance with the provisions of the primary election law, by the district committee.

8.—Each candidate shall be entitled to designate by written notice to the chairman of each county committee in the district, not less than five days before May 15th, 1909, the name of one person for each voting precinct in each county, to act as challenger and inspector for said candidate at said primary election.

9.—On the next day after the returns shall have been made, the committee shall meet and canvass the vote, cast and issue certificates of nomination.

10.—The chairman of the district is directed to employ a competent person to copy from the regular registration books made in Danville and Harrodsburg in 1908, the names of all Democrats, and the person so employed shall return the copies, certified as required by law, to the chairman, who shall cause them to be duly delivered to the officers of election. A BALL GAME.

Interesting Account As It Was Seen by the Grocery Keeper.

The game opened, Molasses at the stick. Smallpox was catching. Cigar was in the box and had plenty of smoke. Horn was playing at first base and Fiddle was playing at second base. Corn was in the field and Apple was umpire. When Ax came to the bat, he chopped and Cigar let Brick walk, and Sawdust filled the bases; Song made a hit and Twenty made a score. Every foot of ground was kicked and said Apple was rotten. Then Cherry tried it, but was a wild one.

When Spider caught the fly the crowd cheered. Old Ice kept cool as the game went on until he was hit by a pitched ball and you ought to have seen Ice scream. Cabbage had a good head and kept quiet. Old Grass covered lots of ground in the field. Organ refused to play, so Bread loafed and put him out. In the fifth inning Wind began to blow about what he could do and Hammer began to knock, then Trees began to leave. Knife was put out for cutting first base.

There was lots of betting on the game, but when Glass fell they went broke, but Soap cleaned up. They all kicked when Light was put out. The way they roasted Peanut was a fright. Balloon went up in the air when Pigs began to root. The score was 1 to 0 when Apple told Fiddle to take his base. Oats was shocked. Song made another hit and Trombone made a slide, but was put out. Meat was put out at the plate.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

MONEY AND RELIGION

By REV. A. C. DIXON, D. D., Pastor of the Chicago Ave. (Moody's) Church, Chicago.

Some men are rich because they are honest, industrious and intelligent. Their credit makes it easy for them to acquire wealth.

Others are poor, like Moses and Elijah, Peter and Paul, because their mission in the world is other than making money. Their poverty proves their faithfulness to a high ideal. Other men are rich because they are dishonest. They have wrecked corporations, cornered the market and treated rivals unfairly that they might fill their coffers. Other men are poor because they refuse to adopt the tricks of trade or to enter into conspiracies to defraud. They choose to lose money that they may save character.

The Bible says in Deut. 8:18: "Thou shalt remember the Lord thy God, for it is he that giveth power to get wealth." The talent for making money is the gift of God, to be used, like other gifts, for his glory, and making money for God's glory is as holy as praying.

Evil Ways of Money Getting.

Competition means war, and the ethics of war is so low that deception is a virtue. Military men call it strategy, politicians call it diplomacy, but the English call it lying.

The ethics of the battlefield and the political arena has been transferred to trade, so that many men of business do not hesitate to deceive in order to make larger profits. A man in an inquiry meeting declared that he could not be a Christian because his profits depended upon labeling second-class goods as first class. Such a man may make a living, but not a life. He builds up a fortune while he tears down his character. He floats his business while he drowns his soul for "they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare and into many foolish and hurtful lusts that drown men in destruction and perdition." (1 Tim. 6:9.) Jesus said: "A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth." (Luke 12:15.)

Cleansing Power of Giving.

The Bible says again: "Charge them that are rich in this world that they do good; that they be rich in good works." (1 Tim. 6:17.) "Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, it is more blessed to give than to receive." (Acts 20:35.) To get and hold is to become an octopus, with tentacles that take in but never give off. It is to become a Dead Sea, with no life in its waters, an ugly blot on the landscape, the octopus of geography. To give as we have received is to become a Sea of Galilee, with pure water full of life, a gem of beauty. Giving is a cleansing process.

Make Your Money Immortal.

The most emphatic message of the Bible is: Make your money immortal. "Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven." (Mat. 6:20.) Transmute your money which is soon and temporal into character which is unseen and eternal.

How can this be done most effectively? Give scripturally. Learn what the Bible teaches on this subject and do that. In Luke, 11:42, Jesus said: "Ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs and pass over judgment and the love of God; these ought ye to have done and not to leave the other undone." "These ought ye to have done" is Christ's indorsement, of the principle of tithing, and the Christian can have no higher authority. The Mosaic law demanded that one-seventh of the time and one-tenth of the income should be devoted to the Lord, and the Gospel never falls short of the law in its requirements, but rather goes beyond it. The Sermon on the Mount reveals that the Gospel demands of the Christian more than the law. The law says: "Thou shalt not kill," but the Gospel says: "Thou shalt not hate," etc.

Free Will Offerings.

One-tenth is the minimum, while we should give in free-will offerings as much more as gratitude may prompt. Do this every week.

"On the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him." (1 Cor. 16:2.) Remember that Jesus stood over against the treasury and watched how they gave. The widow gave with the spirit of loving sacrifice, and this manner of giving counted for more with Christ than the abundance of the wealthy.

John Wesley's motto was: "Make all you can; save all you can; give all you can." If you make and give with a view of giving, your labor is as religious as your prayers. "What are you doing this morning?" asked a neighbor, as he entered a blacksmith shop while the smithy was striking the hot iron on the anvil. "Preaching the Gospel to the regions beyond," was the reply as he struck the iron a little harder and make the sparks fly farther. And the labor of this humble man was transfigured by the glory of a high and holy motive.

NEW WAY TO PLANT TREES.

Proper Manner in Which to Plant Trees to Induce Fresh Root Formation.

It is an article of faith among fruit growers that a fruit tree must be planted in properly prepared soil, a large, wide shallow hole, the roots carefully spread out in all directions and arranged near the surface with a slight upward bearing at the end.

Small quantities of the finer soil are first worked in among the roots, hollow spaces caused by arching in the slouter roots are filled up, the remainder of the soil is put in, trodden carefully down and the whole left to the compacting influence of the rain. The tree is supported by stakes until it is firmly established.

Spencer U. Pickering, with his recent researches, declares that proper tree planting means a small hole, roots doubled up anyhow, the trees stuck in the soil, thrown in and rammed down as for a gate post. With extensive experiments 59 per cent. show in favor of the new simple method, 27 show no difference and 14 per cent. show against the new way. By whatever criterion the trees are gauged the new method is said to give better results than the orthodox. Although an antagonistic cry has been raised against the revolution theory no practical man has been able to give any reason for the old faith that is in him beyond the fact that it is sanctioned by established custom.

Examination proves that ramming has led to a copious development of fibrous roots. In planting the important thing is to induce fresh root formation and ramming does this more rapidly than the old way.

Woodman's Lizard to Be Used in Sawing Poles Economizes Strength and Time.

for long poles ever used. The pole you are sawing lays naturally along the lizard and does not take the combined strength of yourself and family to hold it down on the buck, as is the case with the common ones.

Ground Corn for Hogs.

There are conditions and circumstances where it is not advisable to grind the corn, even though it be high priced. On the other hand, when fitting hogs for show, sale, or in high pressure feeding for market, the feeder will consider it advisable to grind the corn, even though it is expensive to do so. The feeder, knowing these results, will use them to suit his own conditions.

Essential Qualities of Baby Beef.

The feeder who makes yearling of baby beef, must consider quality, type and condition essential, while the feeder of two-year-old cattle should handle the type of cattle which can be bought relatively the cheapest and be ready for market at such time as that particular class of cattle is in demand.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

The virtues we are proudest of we practice because we have to.

A compensation to a sinner is to feel how those who condemn him envy him.

Some of the fixings a woman wears where people can't see them are in case they should.

A man feels more self-respect for being able to discount a note than he would for not having to do it.

The reason there will be no purgatory for a woman in the next world is she gets it here in suffering man.

A girl who sets out to marry a millionaire is lucky if she doesn't wind up by getting only her board out of it.

Husbands are almost indispensable for lifting things to the top shelf of closets, carving and threatening to whip the children.

When a man happens to guess what the weather turns out to be he wants you to think he could have become a famous scientist if he had made that his profession.

After a girl accepts a man who unexpectedly proposes to her, a great disappointment to her is she was so excited for fear he would get scared off that she forgot to recite a beautiful piece of sentiment that she had got ready for him when it happened.—New York Press.

WHAT WOMEN FORGET.

Women sometimes forget—

That there are two sides to every question.

That nerves are not conducive to a Vere de Vere manner.

That children are just as susceptible to "mothering" as dogs.

That there are two essentials to her success—tact and charm of manner.

That the "School for Scandal" is not a recognized educational institution which fits her for the "School of Life."

That the hope of every woman lies in one of two directions—to make or take a name for herself.

That the reason they are less contented than men is that women magnify their troubles and men pass on the small things—they are content to "let the little world pass by."

That her personality, her little airs and graces, her faults and foibles are all instrumental in shaping the manners of men, and that she has only herself to blame or praise for their attitude toward her.

That it is good for her to close eyes to all externals at least once every day and soar quite away into oblivion—then to come back and be happy for the rest of the hours.—New York Evening Post.

A BACHELOR'S REFLECTIONS.

The poor girl with the matchmaking mother always seems to have an imp of a little brother to break the engagement.

You can never tell what a woman is going to do, which accounts for the fact that the unexpected happens so often.

While it is all right for a woman to help her husband, many a girl starts in early by helping her sweetheart to propose.

Never blame a woman for not taking her husband to church with her; perhaps he has the habit of talking in his sleep.

A woman's idea of the value of money is usually limited to the knowledge that it will buy whatever she sets her heart on.

When a man is young he always wants to have his own way; afterwards he gets married and then he never has it.

A man who objected to his wife joining an Audubon club figured out that it was just an excuse to get a new bonnet, as her old one had birds on it.

NEW DEFINITIONS.

Truth is not politeness.

Bluff is not assurance.

Recognition is not success.

Generosity is not promising.

Sensitiveness is not cowardice.

Indifference is not good nature.

Taste is not following the fashion.

Divorce is not a desire for freedom.

A drama is not a climax surrounded by stuffed figures.

Prosperity is not owning an automobile and owing money.

Temperament does not mean running off with another man's wife or another woman's husband.

Wm. Parr—England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be youthful at 80. James Wright, of Spurlock, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. REPORT SEEING SEA SERPENT.

Fishermen, Residents of a "Dry" Town, Declare They Saw Reptile in the Pacific.

Guy Griffith, James Harvey and three other fishermen who were out in the launch Reta, report that when 18 miles off the coast they sighted a sea serpent 40 feet long, with a brown head as big around as a small barrel and eyes as large as a man's fist. The serpent is said to have moved its head from side to side as a snake does, and had a big dorsal fin 75 feet back of the head.

The fishermen say the same monster has been reported within the last few months near the Philippines and along the northern coast of this country.

They furthermore aver that a heavy snaker, which one of the five threw at the sea serpent as the boat was pulling away from the unsafe neighborhood, was caught in the creature's mouth and spit back with such force as to make a deep dent in the fish box on deck.

"Never saw such a spitter," said one of the men; "just like a young cannon." Long Beach is a "dry" town.—Long Beach (Cal.) Dispatch to the New York World.

HAVE PROPER SELF-RESPECT.

One of the Greatest Mistakes Possible to Make is That of Holding Oneself Too Cheap.

Do not hold yourself too cheap. If you do not think well of yourself others are not likely to think much of you. You are usually taken at your own value. By this is not meant a foolish self-conceit, but a proper self-respect.

Have a regard for the esteem of those whose opinion is worth having. No one can be admired by all. He who has no enemies may doubt whether he has real friends. Try to win the regard of the good and the wise; if the foolish take offense pass it by.

Think too well of yourself to stoop to anything coarse, mean or untrue. However humble your station in life may be, you may think yourself worthy only of that which is good and true. To be genuine puts you on a high level. Whatever your purse, you may be rich in character. Think yourself worthy of the best to which you can attain. Aim for the highest you see, and should you fail to reach it, you will still be higher than if your aim had been low.

Dreamers.

Day dreams, castles in Spain, figments of the imagination—ah, how we laugh at them all nowadays! They are good enough for the little ones, for the boys and girls, perhaps, but as for us—we have long ago outgrown them. With what gusto we speak of So-and-so as a hard-headed chap, a money getter, while we dismiss his rival with a lift of the brows as "an impractical fellow."

Shame upon us for it, too! God give us more dreamers. I pray, more of those whose inner eye is free of cataract. We need them here in America to-day; we are too practical a people. We are young in years, but we have fought an aging battle for the supremacy of a great continent. We have come up out of the struggle with the rich trophies of victory fast clutched in our calloused hands. We have worked desperately hard for them, and they are good to look upon—but we must have a care now lest we bow down before them in abject fetish worship.—Charles Francis Read, in Smart Set.

Form Colonies for Tramps.

Perhaps most tramps have no desire to work, preferring to cling to their habits of shiftlessness, but there are doubtless many men in the ranks who would settle down to the serious task of making money and improving their condition if they had the proper training. The latter may and probably will, be rescued by a term on the "farm," but the veteran who has walked rails when no freight were available, who has shied at anything involving labor; who has begged or stolen what food he has obtained, cannot be reformed. He will go on until the end in his old way, a scourge to humanity and a disgrace to civilization. Usefulness was never and can never be for him. To the extent of the number constituting this class the farm colony will be a failure.

He Got None.

"What's a pun, father?" "A pun, my son, is a play upon words. There are three kinds of puns: Good ones, which you laugh at; indifferent ones, which you take no notice of; and bad ones, which make you throw something at the punster." "Can't you make a pun, father?" "Of course, my son! Now, you're thinking about your supper, aren't you?" "Yes, father."

"Well, that's uppermost in your mind at the present time. That, you see, is a play on—Here, you young rascal, what did you throw that book at me for?"

Thin Skinnedness.

"The most unpleasant kind of vanity to meet with," writes a reader, "is thin skinnedness. The thin-skinned person is always on the lookout for slightest and every allusion to himself. His amour propre must be consulted on every occasion, thereby making every one around constrained and unnatural for fear of hurting him. He is a wet blanket everywhere, and one cannot help a feeling of relief whenever he leaves."—Home Chat.

FULL LINE OF CASKETS AND BURIAL ROBES ALWAYS IN STOCK

"SPECIAL NOTIFICATION" A Tremendous Sacrifice Sale THE PUBLIC BENEFITS

The public of Lexington and the entire State of Kentucky will benefit greatly by E. L. March's big purchase of a number of Manufacturers surplus carpets, rugs, lace curtains, stocks, $250,000 in all consisting of furniture of every description, carpets, rugs, curtains, draperies, stoves, refrigerators, and household goods.

E. L. March, of Lexington, Kentucky secured nineteen car loads of manufacturers surplus stocks at an unheard of low figure.

On account of the recent condition of the money market the manufacturers had to sell and E. L. March obtained the stocks at practically his own price.

E. L. March says that he proposes to give the people of Lexington Kentucky and vicinity the benefit of his great purchase of manufacturers surplus stocks by giving the people the most stupendous and most remarkable TEN-DAY SALE on Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Stoves, Refrigerators, Curtains, Household Goods, Etc., that was ever given in the State of Kentucky. The entire stock right from the manufacturers will be sold at such ridiculously low prices that the public will be amazed. This ten-day sale will be without a question a doubt the biggest bargain feast and sale of Furniture and Rugs that was ever given in the South at any time before, or that will ever occur here again. Commercial Circles will be astounded at the tremendous bargains offered. It will be a bargain earthquake of low prices on good quality Furniture, Rugs, Etc., that will arouse the people of Kentucky and vicinity from center to circumference. It took great nerve and a great outlay of ready cash to buy these large surplus of manufacturers stocks for a city the size of Lexington, for as a rule, these great snaps are usually gobbled up by the large stores in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, but E. L. March says there is nothing too good for the people of Kentucky and vicinity, and he proposes to give the public a stupendous ten-day sale on the above stocks that will be the talk of the entire State and surrounding country for the next ten years to come. It will be a premier effort in value giving on Furniture, Rugs, Carpets, such as the public will long remember as never heretofore have our people been able to buy Furniture of every description, Carpets, Rugs and House Furnishings at less than actual wholesale cost of manufacturers. E. L. March's two big buildings are now closed in order to get these great surplus stocks in readiness for the opening day sale and the store will not be open for business until the opening day of the sale, which will be WEDNESDAY, MORNING, at eight thirty a. m., MAY 12. This is no ordinary Furniture Sale, but one in fact that seldom occurs in any community. E. L. March, of Lexington, has certainly prepared for immense crowds of people, having already engaged hundreds of extra salespeople in order to wait upon the large crowds attending the sale during this stupendous ten days furniture sacrifice. The people of Lexington, Kentucky, and vicinity have never heretofore had an opportunity of attending such a sacrifice sale as E. L. March's Manufacturers Outlet Furniture Sale will afford the public. It is an opportunity which comes to you about once in a life-time. Let all who possibly can attend this most wonderful bargain-giving event to replenish your homes.

Remember this sale will last for ten days only. Mail orders will be filled same day as received and freight will be paid on any purchase to your town. This great sale positively opens WEDNESDAY morning, MAY 12th at EIGHT THIRTY A. M. Drop everything to make your arrangements to be in Lexington, Ky., if possible, on the opening day. Be sure you find the right place.

Look for the big green and white signs. E. L. MARCH MANUFACTURERS OUTLET FURNITURE SALE, 340 and 344 West Main street Lexington, Ky. We would advise early morning selections as much as possible in order to facilitate the popular handling of the immense crowds of people who will attend this gigantic furniture and rug sale which opens MAY 12 Wednesday Morning at 8:30 A. M. Be here on one of the ten sale days and secure your share of the many bargains offered.

You cannot afford to miss this sale at E. L. March's Furniture and Carpet Stores, at 340 and 344 West Main street, Lexington, Kentucky.

Remember the opening date and if you value money then prepare accordingly and you will save many dollars on Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Stoves, Curtains Draperies, and your household needs. Sale only lasts ten days, beginning Wednesday Morning, May 12th, ending Saturday night, May 22nd.

IF YOU VALUE MONEY THEN PREPARE ACCORDINGLY. YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO MISS THIS SALE.

The Fourth Annual Inspection of Lancaster Chapter No. 56, R. A. M.

The fourth annual inspection of Lancaster Chapter No. 56 Royal Arch Masons was had at its lodge room in Lancaster on the evening of May 14th. The inspecting officer was Harry Bailey, of Cynthiana, Grand King of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky.

While of course we could not be present we are reliably informed that Mr. Bailey at the conclusion of the conference of Royal Arch Degree upon two candidates, with great feeling and earnestness, addressed the chapter, in which he said that it was the finest work he had ever witnessed, and doubted exceedingly if it could be excelled by any chapter anywhere.

There was also present among the distinguished visitors, Geo. C. Lewis, of Frankfort, Past Grand High Priest of Kentucky, who in an address to the Chapter echoed heartily the sentiments expressed by Mr. Bailey.

At the conclusion of the work the Chapter adjourned to meet at the parlors of the "Kengarian" where they were met by the ladies invited to participate in and enjoy the hospitality of the Chapter, at a most bounteous spread feast, consisting of seven courses of the choicest viands.

At 10:30 the doors of the large dining room were thrown open and the companions, ladies and invited guests entered and remained standing at their places while the Rev. O. P. Bush invoked the blessing of the "Great I Am," upon that festival, after which the guests being seated High Priest, W. O. Rigney who acted as Toast Master, called upon Companion Captain of Host, J. M. Rothwell, to deliver the address of welcome, which was pleasingly and appropriately done, making every one feel, to use his own expression, that "You're as welcome as the flowers in May." Then followed the substantial part of the entertainment and as course after course of the exquisitely selected and prepared menu was placed before each guest, expressions of pleasure and compliment were universal.

At the conclusion of the menu, the Toast Master called upon Companions Bailey, Collier and Lewis, who responded suitably to the occasion. The whole affair was concluded by closing remarks delivered by Companion Scribe, L. L. Walker, who possibly never before and may not again, though he speak a week, so fittingly arise to the exigencies of such an occasion. His effort was a master piece of expression and true Masonic sentiment.

At 12:30 the assembly adjourned in a happy state of mind to wend their ways to their several homes, each feeling that it was an evening well and pleasantly spent.

Name That Will Live Long.
Charles Dickens was christened Charles John Huffman, or Huffman, as it is erroneously entered in the parish register. But when he became famous he dropped the last two Christian names, as he desired to be known as plain Charles Dickens, a wish respected on his tombstone in Westminster abbey, by his biographer and friend, John Forster, and by the scrupulously accurate "Dictionary of National Biography."

Upon her hand he pressed his lips
She said it wasn't right;
But he didn't seem to understand
Her hidden meaning quite.
"I beg your pardon, then," said he,
"If it was out of place."
"It surely was," the maid replied,
And then he kissed her face.

NABOTH, JR.

Naboth Jr. is a rich red bay, 8 years old and full 16 hands high, weighs 1225 pounds and is a horse of wonderful beauty, having a long, rangy neck and carrying a fine tail. He is a perfect galloper with superb all round action and like all sons of old Naboth he has great natural speed in harness and a greater racking horse can not be found in the State of Kentucky. I have been a dealer in fancy horses for ten years, furnishing them for all the markets in this country and I am anxious to encourage the breeders of horses to continue to raise better ones. As is generally known there is a scarcity of good horses, and those suitable for the Eastern market bring fancy prices. If the breeders would raise "Number one" horses they must take the mares to the right kind of sires. Naboth Jr., beyond all doubt, is a horse that will produce that type of horses that the market demands, and for which the public is willing to pay high prices. I purchased this great young stallion at a fancy price because he has size, style, action, beauty and breeding. I had this horse worked 30 days and he stepped a mile in 2:10.

If like begets like you can get the right kind of horses by breeding to Naboth Jr. You will note that this Stallion has the blood of Old Naboth, Hambletonian 10, Old Messenger Chief, Red Wilkes, George Wilkes, Manbrino Chief, Pilot and Harry Clay.

PEDIGREE.

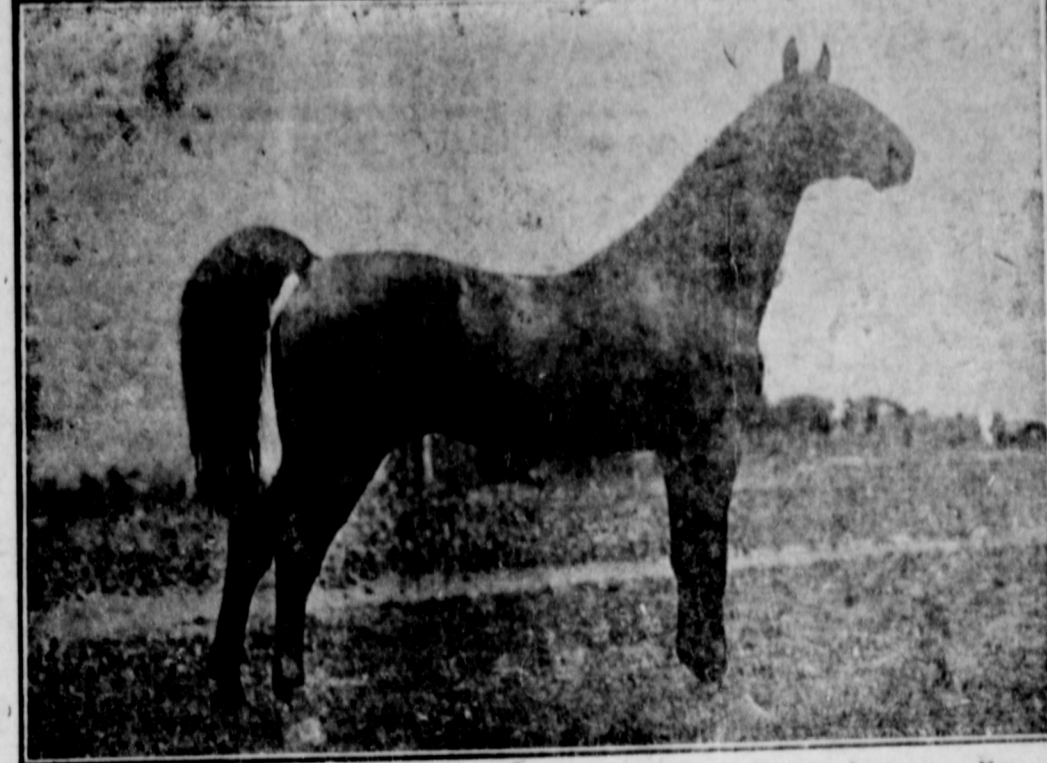

By Naboth, 1010 2:19 1/4, He by Walsingham, 2106, sire of Latitude 2:19 1/4 and several others in the list. Walsingham by George Wilkes.

Old Naboth's first dam, Tinsell by Messenger Durock 106, son of Hambletonian, Second dam, Bess, sister to James Howell, Jr. by Hambletonian. Third dam, Jessie Sayre by Harry Clay 45. Fourth dam, by Liberty, son of Lance, by American Ellipse.

Naboth Jr.'s first dam by Messenger Chief, Jr. by Old Messenger Chief. Second dam by Crit Davis, by Red Wilkes, Third dam Thoroughbred.

Naboth Jr. will be kept during the season of 1909 at my stable in Lancaster, Ky., and will be permitted to serve mares at the very low price $15.00 to insure a living colt. I am prepared to care for stock from a distance at reasonable prices but no responsibility assumed for accidents or escapes of stock committed to my care.

NOTICE: Naboth Jr., is the sire of the colt that won the $100. champion colt stake, also the sire of the winner of the yearling stake, at the Lancaster Fair 1908.

An attempt of a group of Socialists

Camp Clark, the Democratic leader of the House, in an interview said that President Taft could not sign the Aldrich Payne bill and keep faith with the people who elected him. Mr. Clark said that Mr. Taft in his speeches promised tariff revision downward and that it was now evident that the new bill would not on the average reduce Dingley rates.

The center of the great storm which has left death and devastation in its wake passed through Georgia and incomplete reports indicate that forty or more persons were killed, the death list at Buchanan being the largest.
Later reports from Tennessee indicate that probably 100 persons were killed in that State on Friday.

The Supreme Court handed down its long-expected decision in the cases involving the commodities clause of the Hepburn interstate commerce act, reversing the decision of the lower court, which held the section unconstitutional. The construction for which the Government contended, however, was not sustained, the court deciding that a railroad might transport commodities produced or mined by it, provided the road does not own the commodity at the time of its shipment. It was also held that ownership of stock in the company owning the commodity does not constitute ownership by the railroad. The decision is expected to make but little change in the connection between the railroads and the anthracite mine.

Soils of the vegetable nature may be tested with ammonia water. Take two glass plates, place a level table-spoonful of soil in each and add water until the plates are about two-thirds full; add to one of the glasses a table-spoonful of diluted ammonia water; stir each glass with a different spoon. If after standing some hours the liquid in the one having the ammonia becomes dark brown or black, it shows that acid humus is present, and liming will be very useful.

Commissioner Rankin advises against tobacco culture and says he will never plant another stalk to sour his rich soil; but instead he will stick to corn and wheat and stock raising.
Tobacco destroys the chemicals of the soil from which our succulent Bluegrass springs, for which we are noted.
The science of farming is diversification, and it is plain that we of the farmed and favored Bluegrass have grown too heavy with the sowing
"weed" invasion and its blight.

The question of profitability in sheep growing of course takes into the account both wool and mutton. This is well stated by a sheep grower of Michigan, Mr. L. C. Reynolds, in a recent letter to the Drovers Journal, in which he says:

"That the combination of wool and mutton returns more profit to the sheep raiser than the fostering of any one quality is a self-established fact.
It gives the sheep raiser an opportunity to receive dividends from his investment twice a year, and, besides, insures a safe profit, because of the fact that he is able to place upon the market two different products. If the mutton market is slow the wool products from the flock generally command a good price and vice versa."

VERDICT

1621.

Will make season of 1909 at my place, 4 1/2 miles from Lancaster on Poor House pike.

Verdict is a dark chestnut, 15 1/2 hands, coming 8-year-old,
with much natural style and action as any stallion living, as fine as any mare or gelding you will see, combining all the qualities as to looks, breeding, style and action that go to make a great sire and a first-class producer. If the law of nature repeats itself—"that like begets like"—then you have an ideal stock horse in Verdict. I claim that Verdict carries more of the blood of Old Peavine and Washington
Denmark than any horse living, as his breeding will show.

Verdict's career as a show horse has rarely been equaled, winning as a 2-year-old and as a 3-year-old straight through the Fair Circuit without a break, closing his 3-year-old campaign at the Louisville Horse Show by winning two first ties in his class and winning second in his class for stallions any-age, thus going against the pick of the aged stallions from Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri. In a ring of fifteen horses, Verdict's show career was cut short in 1902 by sickness, only showing at Richmond and Lexington where he won first premium in aged stallion class.

In 1904 Verdict had fully recovered from his illness, and after making a heavy season he showed first at Kirksville, where he won the $500 stake for best stallion, mare or gelding, also first for best aged stallion. His second show was at Lexington, where he won first, then to Harrodsburg, where he won first in aged stallions. First in Sweepstakes, (18 entries) first in combined ring and first in model ring at this fair. Verdict met with an unfortunate accident which kept him from going to the Louisville Horse Show, for which he was being specially prepared under the able supervision of Mat S. Cohen.

Pedigree.

Verdict 1621, sired by Cero Gordo 1022; by Black Squirrel
64; by Black Eagle 74; by King Williams 67; by Washington
Denmark, 64. Verdict's dam, Jay Bird 1914; by Peavine 85;
2d dam by Young Diamond; he by Diamond Denmark 68; by Washington Denmark 64.

Cero Gordo's dam, Miss Richmond 541; by King Richard; he by Peavine 85. King Richard's dam Phoebe (son) by Imported Pharo. Miss Richmond's dam Jenny Lynn 361; by Stonewall Jackson 72; by Washington Denmark 64.

You will see that Verdict traces three times to Peavine 85 (Old Peavine) and three times to Washington Denmark, thus combining the blood of two of the greatest show horses that ever lived.

TERMS

Verdict will be allowed to serve Mares at

$25 To Insure a Living Colt

In which event a Lien is retained on the colt for the service fee. Care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.
